S.R.O. 43, dated the 11th Jan. 1958.—The following byelaws for the control and proper regulation of flour and oil mills in the Cantonment of Ambala, made by the Cantonment Board, Ambala, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (17) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Byelaws for the control and proper regulation of Flour and Oil Mills in the Cantonment of Ambala

1. In these Byelaws "flour mill" means any mill manufacturing flour and "oil mill" means any mill crushing oil seeds producing oil, or teasing cotton or husking rice or kapas, run by electricity or oil.

2. No person shall establish or maintain in the Cantonment of Ambala a flour mill or oil mill except under a license in the form annexed to these byelaws granted by the Cantonment Board, Ambala.

3. The building or premises in which a flour mill or oil mill is proposed to be established shall be:—

- (i) at a reasonable distance from any place which gives out offensive smell, such as latrines, cesspools and pits, drains etc. It shall be within the absolute discretion of the Cantonment Board to determine whether the distance is reasonable or not;
- (ii) a solid structure able to withstand the vibrations of the engine, with adequate space for fixing a dynamo or engine in a railed enclosure;
- (iii) paved with concrete or cement and having 5 feet high cemented wall with a ceiling roof, properly ventilated and lighted.

4. A flour mill shall be used only for grinding food grains which are properly cleansed.

5. No engine or dynamo or more than the power sanctioned by the Board shall be established for a flour mill or oil mill. The maximum horse power of the engine or dynamo permissible for every flour mill or oil mill will be determined by the Cantonment Board in each case and specified in the license referred to in byelaw No. 2. Such machinery shall be fixed on a concrete foundation away from the walls of the building in such manner that the vibrations of the machine do not affect the building.

6. In case of machines run by oil, there shall be a chimney of adequate height so fixed as to eliminate smoke nuisance to neighbours.

7. A flour mill or an oil mill, shall be open for inspection at any time during its working hours by any officer or servant of the Board, authorised to carry out such inspection under the Cantonments Act, 1924 or by any other officer or servant of the Board specially authorised in this behalf by the Cantonment Board.

8. The premises, apparatus and the containers used shall be kept scrupulously clean, and the personnel working therein shall be inoculated and certified as being free from any contagious disease by the medical authority of the Cantonment Board so authorised to certify.

9. An application for a license referred to in byelaw No. 2 shall be made in writing to the Executive Officer in the form annexed to these byelaws.

10. A breach of any of these byelaws shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

11. If the holder of a license commits a breach of any of these byelaws, then without prejudice to the provisions of byelaw No. 10 his license shall be liable to be cancelled by the Cantonment Board, and shall not be renewed until such time as he has carried out the orders of the Executive Officer to his satisfaction to prevent a recurrence of the breach.

S.R.O. 44, dated the 16th Jan. 1958.—The following bye-laws made by Cantonment Board, Ranikhet, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-clause (a) of clause (25) clause (26) and clause (27) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:

Bye-laws for licensing Job-Porters, prescribing licence fee payable by them and for the regulation of the charges to be made for the services of such Job Porters.

1. For the purpose of these bye-laws, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:—

(a) The Licensing Officer means the "Cantonment Executive Officer".

(b) The term "Porter" includes persons who carry packages, loads, or work as carriers by the job for periods not exceeding 24 hours.

2. No person shall ply or work for hire as a Porter within the limits of the Ranikhet Cantonment, unless he has taken out a licence under these rules; and such licence is operative within the meaning of bye-law 8:

Provided that these bye-laws shall not apply any porter hired for a journey which is commenced beyond the Cantonment limits.

3. Every applicant for a licence under these byc-laws shall apply in person to the Licensing Officer.

4. The Licensing Officer may refuse to grant a Licence—
 (a) when the applicant is reported by the Sub-Inspector of Police to be a suspicious or bad character, or
 (b) when the applicant is a person whose licence has within the preceding two years been cancelled for breach of any of these bye-laws.

5. Every applicant for a licence shall, immediately on the issue of a licence to him, pay to the Licensing Officer, the cost price of a metal badge, which shall be given to him by that Officer, together with a table of the current rates, prescribed under these bye-laws.

6. Upon the expiration, suspension or cancellation of a licence, he shall be bound to deliver up to the Licensing Officer his licence and badge.

7. The fee payable to each licence shall be 25 nP. per month.

8. A licence shall not be operative—
 (a) after 31st March next following the date from which it is expressed to take effect;
 (b) in favour of any person other than the person to whom it has been granted and described in the licence;
 (c) unless the licensee is carrying his badge exposed to view.

9. Every licence shall be liable to cancellation in any of the following events, namely, if the licensee—
 (a) is found to have, when applying for his licence, failed to appear in person or given a false name, parentage, caste or address or failed to deliver up any licence or badge as required by bye-law No. 6.
 (b) has transferred his licence or badge to any other person;
 (c) fails to produce his licence or badge for inspection, when so required by any Magistrate, Police Officer, the Executive Officer and officials of the Cantonment Board authorised in this behalf by the Executive Officer;
 (d) fails, within the next 24 hours, to take to the Police Station in charge thereof, any lost or unclaimed property coming into his possession;
 (e) without reasonable excuse refuses to hire himself out to any person lawfully requiring his services, or having hired himself out for the performance of any journey or purpose fails to complete such performance;
 (f) is drunk or uses insulting or abusive language, while under contract of hire;
 (g) fails to produce his table of rates when required to do so, by any person having occasion to check any claim or demand made by him for remuneration; or
 (h) without sufficient reason prevent or endeavours to prevent, any other licensee under these byc-laws, from entering into a contract of hire.

10. The Licensing Officer may at once suspend or cancel a licence which has become liable to cancellation under bye-law 9.

Explanation:—The cancellation of his licence shall be no bar to the holder being prosecuted for any offence punishable under these byc-laws, which he may have committed.

11. An appeal shall lie to the Cantonment Board from any order of the Licensing Officer passed under bye-law 4 or 10.

12. In the absence of any contract to the country, the rate, of hire of porters shall be those laid down in the following schedule :—
